- II. Review and Vote on previous meeting minutes. All outstanding previous meeting minutes, including May 2nd 2022 and May 23rd 2022 were motioned by Celine, seconded by David B. and approved.

III. Bill Schedule:

- IV. Correspondences: Michael was contacted by Joe Pawluck, representing Triton Youth Basketball regarding reserving the basketball court. However, since a policy has not been approved by the Select Board, no reservations can be held. Michael will inform Joe.

Communication from the Assistant Town Collector regarding the applications of Triton Youth Lacrosse and Georgetown Triton Youth Lacrosse.

V. Old Business:

Policy Handbook: Awaiting feedback from Town Counsel prior to approving to then forward to the Select Board.

Master Plan: Mark will contact Chris Huntress, athletic space designer/planner regarding creating a Master Plan for the recreational needs of the Town.

Calendar: David and Celine will complete the trainings for use of the on line scheduling ask calendar. Once the okay is provided by the vendor, the Committee will ask current users to submit application both on line and in paper form. Jon Vogel offered to run a beta test for us.

Fencing on north side of basketball court: It was suggested that the committee consider a split rail fence instead of chain linked fence. It was agreed that style of fencing would serve the intended purpose. Mark motioned and David B. seconded At the committee allocate the necessary funds for the Town's DPW to install said fencing at their earliest convenience. Approved.

Jon Vogel asked if a drop box or storage space could be created to assist the local recreational team's storage concerns. Further discussion to be had, after talking with DPW.

VI. New Business:

Michael reminded current members that if they are interested on continuing on the Committee to submit their letter of interest.

Next Meeting to be scheduled, location is Newbury Town Hall, 12 Kent Way, Byfield, MA. at 6:00pm
